Presenting news and analysis by the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation Commission Inc. of racist, extremist and anti-Jewish activity in Australia and elsewhere.

MOHAMMED HEGAZI

The Iran based news agency MehrNews.com conducted an interview (31/12/05) with Egyptian-born Mohammed Hegazi, Victorian Associate of the Holocaust-denying Adelaide Institute. He stated that, like most Western countries, Jews control government and the judiciary in Australia and that there are continuous efforts to denigrate those scholars who “offend” Jews by rejecting the myth of the Jewish Holocaust. He also spoke of the passing of some legislation under the pretence of averting “racial hatred” and that the essence of such laws is not to “offend” racial minorities, regardless of the historical accuracy of the facts. “They follow the same model Jews have imposed on European countries. There are constant attempts to silence my friend Fred Toben who has been given a hard time in courts, in order to dismantle the website of the Adelaide Institute,” declared Hegazi. “We continue to express our views on the site with much caution, like our counterparts in other parts of our Jew-controlled world.”

Among several letters previously published in Gulf News Online, Hegazi has stated that “suicide bombing remains the only tactic against Israeli squatters in Palestine,” has referred to Israel as “a parasitic, racist entity that was carved by force in 1948”, and said that “Australia has been plagued by generations of Prime Ministers who are subservient to extremist Jewish supremacists in New York.”

Fredrick Toben has described Hegazi as a former school teacher who had been dismissed by a system which was “removing anyone who did not adhere to the Jewish influence, through the teachers' unions, read mis-education and Jewish literature.” Toben has volunteered to be a human shield should the U.S.A. strike Iran this month. He and Canberra associate Richard Krege have recently addressed Iranian university students about the “alleged” Holocaust.

CITIZENS ELECTORAL COUNCIL

The New Citizen Extra (February/March 2006) published by the Citizens Electoral Council (CEC), the Australian arm of the U.S. based conspiracy-driven Lyndon LaRouche political cult, featured a recent media release entitled “Did the Howard Government Unleash the Cronulla Riots?” It questioned whether government agents had precipitated the violence in order to further provide legitimacy for Howard’s ceaseless campaign for police-state laws. “Some of the main instigators in organising support and distributing literature were the racist or neo-Nazi groups Australia First and the Patriotic Youth League who have been “notoriously infiltrated by, and more usually controlled outright by, intelligence agencies.” The article also queried whether violence unleashed by the more radical elements of the Muslim community had really been initiated by government agents whom it is assumed would have previously infiltrated the group.

The Cronulla episode was described as indicative of how fascist methods of social domination are being prepared under the guise of “anti-terror laws.” LaRouche believes that a cabal of Jewish bankers known as the Oligarchy or the Synarchists runs the international financial system.

OLGA SCULLY

Launceston-based Holocaust denier and anti-Jewish campaigner Olga Scully forwarded an article entitled “Rupert the Red” to the online News Report, edited by right-wing forum speaker and former One Nation (N.S.W.) treasurer Neil Baird. Recently written by Australian League of Rights (ALR) contributor Robert Hart for “On Target”, a weekly ALR publication, this historical fantasy stated that Rupert Murdoch’s mother, Dame Elizabeth Murdoch, was the daughter of a wealthy Jewish family, when in reality she came from an upper-class family of Irish and English Protestant descent. “Rupert was brought up by his mother as a Jew and he has always ensured that his papers exhibit a pro-Israeli bias which can be readily confirmed by a detailed study of papers such as The Australian,” revealed Hart.

SAVE AUSTRALIA ALLIANCE

The National Interest newspaper (Issue 36) published a plea by the now late editor and conspiracy theorist Tony Pitt, to save Australia from control by the United Nations/New World Order. “The UN/NWO is as crazy as Hitler was. They want world rule with them ruling and controlling all energy, resources, laws, defence and justice with no elected identities who can be unelected by the people. We get no say,” he explained.

Pitt, former secretary of One Nation’s Maryborough branch, and one-time spokesman for the extremist, now defunct Confederate Action Party, believed that all political parties have pledged to disarm us for their U.N. masters to whom they sold out years ago. He has, as a result, attempted to establish the Save Australia Alliance which he described not as a party, but a loose alliance of independents, groups and other minor parties. Pitt hoped to ensure that every electorate has at least one candidate who will give the sitting member of any major party last preference.

In a farewell message recently published on the website of the National Interest newspaper, Pitt pleaded with One Nation supporters to work together to save Australia. “We have spent so much time, money and energy in the past, trying to stop treasonous political parties from selling out our country and undermining our laws. We can’t give up now. Australia First, One Nation and the Great Australians have been unsuccessful. Letters and petitions have failed. Wake up calls and educational reforms by Eric Butler, Jeremy Lee, Joe Bryant, Robert Balgarnie, [all conspiracy theorists-Ed] I and others were not sufficient. The freedom newspapers haven’t won the day so far.”

Pitt believed that Martin Bryant was framed and had recommended the late conspiracy theorist Joe Viall’s book “Deadly Deception at Port Arthur” for people to learn the truth.

DISTORTION OF HISTORY

Green Left Weekly (25/01/06) featured an article "Israel: Sharon's Legacy" by Michael Shaik, a member of Australians for Justice and Peace in Palestine. It stated that in March 2005, a host of foreign ministers, senior diplomats and international dignitaries converged on Jerusalem to attend the opening of the city's second Holocaust History Museum, where they were lectured by Sharon on the meaning of the Holocaust. "Throughout the carefully scripted ceremony, not one journalist dared to ask those assembled whether they felt comfortable being instructed on the meaning of mass murder by a mass murderer who orchestrated the massacre of more than 2000 Palestinians in Beirut in 1982," lamented Shaik.

He was referring to the Sabra and Shatila camp massacres committed by the Lebanese Christian Phalangist militia, and not the Israelis. The Kahan Commission of Inquiry found that Sharon was "indirectly responsible" and concluded that given the well-known Phalangist hatred of the Palestinians; he should have anticipated that they "were likely to commit atrocities." The Phalange brutality should be viewed as part of the internecine warfare that had plagued Lebanon. The killings were in retaliation for the assassination of Maronite Christian leader President Bashir Gemeyal and 25 of his followers two days earlier. (According to Israeli intelligence calculations, between 700-800 Palestinians lost their lives, not the figure of 2,000 dead as quoted by Shaik.)

CRONULLA

The Australia First Party Nationalist Newsletter (February 2006) featured an article entitled "Cronulla" which declared that the political ideology of multiculturalism is just as repugnant as Communism and Nazism. It stated that multiculturalists are implementing a slow genocide against Australians, caused by elevated levels of Third World immigration, and a cultural battle against the Australian way of life. "The rallying of Australians in Cronulla is much more than people rebelling against racism and violence from Middle Eastern gangs. It is a people's rebellion -- a rejection of the anti-Australian policies of multiculturalism and Third World immigration foisted upon us by lousy politicians, academics and journalists who have deliberately and wilfully ignored the will of the Australian people." This commentary also maintained that resistance must be instigated by political action against the turncoat political parties and their anti-Australian policies.

Australia First and its youth wing the Patriotic Youth League distributed anti-immigration leaflets and mobilised support for the recent Cronulla rally which turned violent.

MULTICULTURALISM SHOULD BE REPLACED

The online One Nation Queensland State Newsletter (5/12/05) featured an article entitled "The Sydney Riots" by Ron Williams, stating that multiculturalism should be abolished and that we should return to a "monocultural" system. "Every intending immigrant should be questioned closely regarding their religion, and all those of the Muslim faith refused entry," he said. Williams also declared that all ethnic schools should be closed, as children educated in these schools are taught separatism, directing them away from integration. He also suggested that the wearing of religious symbols in schools and universities should be banned, all bookshops selling seditious material should be shut and all publications printed and issued here should be in English. He believes that, under the terms of our constitution, Islam cannot be deemed as just another religion. "It should, as a whole, be considered a security risk and treated as such. It is more than just a religion, it is a political and social system based on attitudes which were prevalent around 400AD and completely irrelevant in today's world," argued Williams.

INVERELL FORUM 2006

The town of Inverell, NSW, is playing host to a national gathering of far-right participants on the weekend of 17-20 March. The "Inverell Forum 2006" is sponsored by The Strategy, Australia's foremost far-right newspaper, and will be compered by former ACT "Abolish Self-Government" MP Dennis Stevenson, who has previously been associated with the Australian League of Rights and the Citizens Electoral Council.

The forum's program will include speakers not only from the racist right, but also from the right-wing conspiratorial fringe who will address issues such as customs protection, foreign ownership, good health, constitutional rights, the environment, drugs and pollution. The forum will allow an intermingling of racist ideas with fringe conspiracies, and provide further opportunity for racist messages regarding the New World Order to reach a broader fringe audience.

Keynote speaker will be Associate Professor Andrew Fraser, who was suspended from teaching last July for publicly airing his views on non-whites and Africans in Australia. Fraser stated that Australia was becoming a third world colony by allowing non-white immigration. A lecturer at Macquarie University, he claims that African migration increases crime, and believes HSC results point to a rising ruling class of Asians.

Other speakers include Len Harris, former One Nation Queensland senator and currently President of the Mareeba branch of One Nation, Dr Jim Saleam, state co-ordinator of the Australia First NSW branch, and Nic Faulkner, formerly involved with the far-right political party The Great Australians.

REFUGEE COLONISATION

The Patriotic Alliance Downunder (PAD) website (February 2006) featured an article entitled "Toowoomba Under Attack" written by John Pell, Dr Jim Saleam and Val Hale. The white supremacist PAD describes itself as "a trans-Tasman alliance of patriots and nationalists whose goal is to counteract the lies and deceit championed by the established controlled media and leftist intelligentsia."

This material stated that Toowoomba is to be the venue for a new colonisation by African refugees drawn chiefly from Sudan. "It is part of a global movement. They are the battering rams of the change that will, unless reversed, see Australia lost as a European country and repositioned as part of an Asian trade zone." The item claimed that in the past three years, Toowoomba had experienced a 500 per cent jump in the number of resettled refugees, the majority of them from Southern Sudan, and that the emergence of a Toowoomba people's opposition to the actual invasion of their city had startled the authorities. "This has occurred everywhere the multi-culti dictators have sought to impose the refugee-invasion of country Australia, and Toowoomba was no exception."

In 2004, the Federal government announced new initiatives such as the Skilled Independent Regional visa (SIR) to help attract more migrants and refugees to Australia's regional areas.

CONTROVERSIAL SPEAKER RETURNS TO AUSTRALIA

The Federation of Australian Muslim Students and Youth (FAMSY) website currently features details of the "Unity for Peace Conference" to be held in Melbourne in May. Partly organised by FAMSY, this event seeks to form a united front against the occupation of Iraq and anti-Muslim racism. It will feature many international speakers including Anas Altikriti, a key figure in mobilising Muslim support against Britain's involvement in Iraq, who visited Australia last year to conduct workshops on how Muslim students and youth should deal with the media.

IslamOnline.net (16/02/06) reported on a "Live Dialogue" discussion forum with Altikriti, former President of the Muslim Association of Britain (MAB) and its current spokesman, which examined any positive outcomes of the Danish cartoon crisis. In the past, the MAB's website has encouraged followers to download images of the Star of David transformed into a swastika and Altikriti has compared Israel to Nazi Germany and Ariel Sharon with Adolf Hitler. The son of Osama al-Tikriti, leader of the Muslim Brotherhood in Iraq, Altikriti believes that the "war on terror" has become a war against Islam and its followers, and that the Danish cartoons had more to do with incitement of hatred, racism and Islamophobia than with freedom of expression.

When asked on "Live Dialogue" whether he opposed antisemitic cartoons, Altikriti responded by referring to "the myth of antisemitism as propagated by the Zionist movement". He denied being an antisemite, because then he would support attacks against his Palestinian brothers and sisters who themselves are Semites. "However, I am very much against Zionism, and against Israel. I hope that I have clarified my position" he concluded.

In reality, antisemitism has been accepted and understood to mean hatred of the Jewish people. The claim that Arabs as "Semites" cannot possibly be antisemitic, is a semantic distortion that ignores the reality of Arab discrimination and hostility toward Jews.

KEYSAR TRAD

A Green Left Weekly (GLW) article by Pip Hinman entitled "Politicians, shock jocks and Islamophobia" (8/03/06) reported how Islamic Friendship Association President Keysar Trad had told a February Stop the War Coalition meeting, that Islamophobic politicians are upset at the lack of violent reaction to the publication of the Danish racist, anti-Muslim cartoons. "Neither the Treasurer nor the Prime Minister are new to dog whistling, xenophobia or Islamophobia," said Trad. "Their 2007 election campaign seems to be based on Islamophobia. Muslim-kicking has always been an easy distraction and right now they need something to limit the impact of the Australian Wheat Board scandal." According to the GLW, Trad had previously accused the Howard government of conducting raids and arrests of so-called terror suspects prior to the Cronulla riots, in order to divert attention away from its industrial relations changes.

Previously vice-president of the Lebanese Muslims' Association, Trad was relieved of this position. He was once a translator for the pro-bin Laden Islamic Youth Movement, which conducted appeals for violent jihad overseas, the group since investigated for alleged terrorism related offences. Trad's previous website "Islamic Offerings from Sydney, Australia" had for several years provided a link to the notorious Radio Islam. A former spokesman for the radical Mufti of Australia, Sheikh Hilaly, Trad had also addressed a meeting of the racist Australian League of Rights and signed a petition promoted by the conspiracy-driven Citizens Electoral Council.

According to The Daily Telegraph (28/02/06), Australian Federation of Islamic Councils executive member Dr. Munir Hassain stated that Mr Trad had no importance in Australia's Muslim community.
